WHEREAS, in setting the minimum wage, the Board has to consider the various criteria under Republic Act No. 6727, as well as the guidelines on the Two-Tiered Wage System;

WHEREAS, after a thorough review and evaluation of the existing socio-economic conditions in the region, the following findings were established:

- The Consumer Price Index in the region was 102.9 in January 2020 and rose to 110.0 in April 2022.
- The poverty threshold based on the data provided by the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) for an average family size of 5 in 2018 is in the amount of Php 353.00 per day.
- The Purchasing Power of the Peso at the time of the effectivity of the wage order was at .97. In April 2022 it has gone down to .91.
- Region 7's Gross Regional Domestic Product (GRDP) has bounced back from a -9.5% growth in 2020 at constant 2019 prices to 5.4% in 2021.
- At the time of its effectivity, the region's highest minimum wage rate of Php 404.00 is equivalent to Php 393.00 in real wages. As of April 2022, the same amount of Php 404.00 only amounts to Php 367.27 in real wages.
- Since the effectivity of the wage order in January 2020 until April 2022, prices of unleaded gasoline have risen by around 45%; diesel 89%; LPG by 34%; and
- As of April 2022, inflation rate in the region is at 5.4%.

WHEREAS, after due consideration of the results of the consultations and public hearing, and a thorough review and evaluation of the existing socio-economic conditions in the region, the Board agrees to adjust the prevailing daily wage rates of workers/employees in the Region to enable them to cope with the rising cost of living without impairing the viability of business and industry.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested under RA No. 6727, RTWPS-VII hereby issues this Wage Order.

Section 1. Amount of Increase. Upon effectivity of this Wage Order, minimum wage earners in the private sector in the Region shall receive a PhP 31.00 increase in daily wage. The new minimum wage rates in Region VII will range from PhP 382.00 to PhP 435.00.
